

K-LOVE serves the community through positive and uplifting music that helps to better the listener's attitude and provide hope in the lyrics of the songs played on the station which you don't find on most other stations. It is an encouragement to our community which is predominantly blue collar/middle-class and jobs are few. I believe K-LOVE is particularly needed in this community to help restore people's faith.